3. Use of Cookies and Other Tracking Technologies

When you use Buona's Services, we may, and the vendors we work with, may collect information about your use of the Services through tools such as cookies, pixels, and software development kits. This information may include IP addresses, device identifiers, language preferences, referring URLs, and browser and platform details. We may use these tools to recognize a user's device, store user preferences, and allow us to tailor our Services to better match your interests and preferences.

We may use certain third-party technology vendors (such as Google Analytics, Double Click Floodlight, LinkedIn Insight Tag, GA4, Facebook/Meta Pixel and/or Google Ads Conversion Tracker) in connection with your activity on certain pages, including for advertising purposes and to understand details about your use of the Site (including referring URL, clicks, cursor movement, and scrolling activity) and personalize content for you.

Please note that we or other parties may collect personal information about your online activities over time and across different devices and online properties when you use the Services. You may see certain ads on other websites based on your use of our Services because we participate in an advertising network administered by a third-party vendor. Ad networks allow us to target our messaging to users through demographics and interests. These networks track your online activities over time by collecting information through automated means, including through the use of cookies, web server logs and web beacons. The networks use this information to show you advertisements that are tailored to your individual interests. The information our ad network vendor collects includes information about your visits to websites that participate in the vendor's advertising networks, such as the pages or advertisements you view and the actions you take on the websites.

With most Internet browsers, you can adjust your browser settings to remove or reject cookies. Please be aware, however, that without Cookies, you may not be able to use all of the features of our Services. The following tools may also allow you to reject their collection of information:

- For more information on how Google Analytics uses data it collects, visit: policies.google.com/technologies/partner-sites. To opt out of Google Analytics, visit tools.google.com/dlpage/gaoptout. To adjust your Google advertising settings, visit: myadcenter.google.com.

- You can block the collection and use of information related to you by certain online ad tech companies for the purpose of serving interest-based advertising by visiting either the NAI's opt-out page, which is available here, or the DAA's opt-out page, which is available here.

Please note our Services are not designed to respond to “Do Not Track” signals received from browsers.
