FROM SUNDAY GRAVY TO FEASTS FOR FIVE THOUSAND

It All Starts with Family

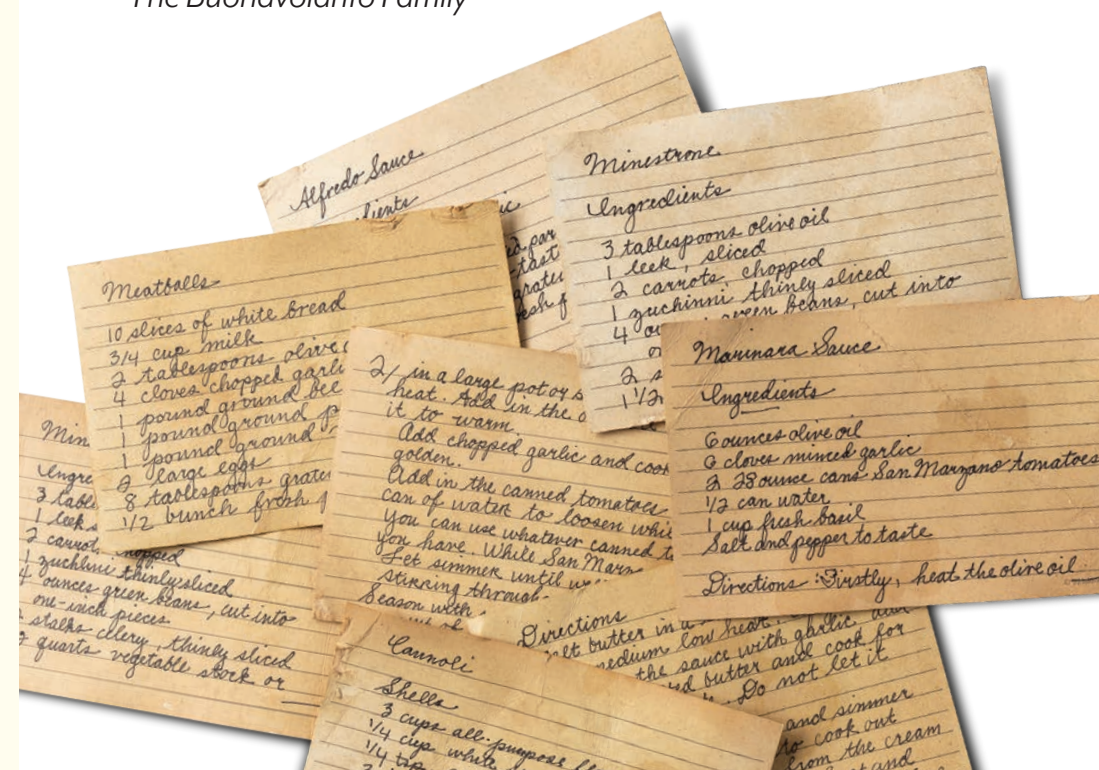

Like many Italian families, to us, food represents togetherness and love. Our meal traditions begin and end with Sunday Gravy – a day when families and friends gather to prepare their favorite dishes and the slow-simmered red gravy that's the centerpiece of every Sunday meal.

This weekly ritual was central to our founding mission of sharing food that's inspired by our culinary and cultural heritage.

Our menu features Chicago-Italian dishes prepared from recipes that have been passed down from mothers to daughters and fathers to sons across our tight-knit extended family. From our parents' legendary Italian beef and our grandmother's marinara to our classic entrees and salads, we're committed to authenticity – in the food we serve and in the service we provide.

Because to us, every day is Sunday Gravy Day.

ELEVATED STREET FOOD

Our Italian beef is made the way our grandfathers and their fathers made it. We start with Top Sirloin, a cut known for its rich meaty flavor. We dry roast it for hours which creates the drippings that naturally flavor our famous gravy.

We take great pride in the food we serve – from our delightfully fresh pastas cooked to al dente perfection to our generation-spanning recipe for marinara, you'll be sharing some of the food that our family shares every Sunday.
